CUSTOMIZED TRAINING

STEP 1

Select

Upon request, UNITAR designs and implements courses on multilateral diplomacy and international affairs, including capacity building and skills development on the three UN pillars: Human Rights, Peace and Security, and Development.

STEP 2

Customize

The duration, content and mode of delivery of the courses are defined in close consultation with beneficiaries and partner organizations in order to meet participants' specific needs.

STEP 3

Engage

The training activities can be implemented face-to-face in Geneva, in capital cities and in other locations as well as online via UNITAR's e-Learning platform.

Participants

UNITAR's customized training activities in multilateral diplomacy target:

- Delegates, Ministries of Foreign Affairs and Government officials;
- Staff of Diplomatic Academies and Foreign Service training institutions; International Civil Servants;
- Cosmopolitan and Executive Decision-Makers from the private sector.

Training Materials

UNITAR provides a set of training materials, prepared in close cooperation with partners and resource persons, consisting of presentations, selected readings, instructions for interactive exercises and discussion group assignments, relevant publications, etc.

Worldwide
Coverage

100%

Customized

Methodology

All training sessions devote particular attention to:

- Interactivity: participants are actively involved in discussions, feedbacks sessions and group exercises;
- Applicability: The courses use a “learning-by-doing” approach, either through case studies, role plays or simulation exercises;
- Experience Sharing: The courses build upon the experience, knowledge and personal resources of the participants.

Duration

The content, methodology and structure of each course are tailored to the specific needs of the participants and defined in close consultation with the beneficiary/partner organization. The duration varies from training to training.

Executive Diploma in Diplomatic Practice

Consisting of 10 face-to-face Core Diplomatic Training workshops in Geneva, the Executive Diploma in Diplomatic Practice represents an unparalleled opportunity for diplomats and other key actors in the multilateral system to improve their career opportunities and expand the reach of their global network. In addition, UNITAR will organize a series of panel discussions, which will aim to cover compelling and current themes in the international arena. A research paper will be the final component of this comprehensive programme.

Prior to and after the programme, participants will receive individual guidance from UNITAR experts, which will include a self-evaluation of their competences, a questionnaire of expectations, and an individual pre-assessment.

“The Executive Diploma allowed me to get experience from experts who have a problem-solving approach. The Diploma highly exceeded my expectations”

Mariam, Operation Manager

“I wholeheartedly recommend the Executive Diploma for anyone who would like to learn more about the fascinating and complex world of diplomacy and international affairs amongst peers”

High Level Conferences

UNITAR organizes high-level panels and conferences in Geneva and New York on key issues related to the United Nations. One of those is the Geneva Lecture Series (GLS), which aims at bringing awareness of pressing global challenges to the diplomatic community and the civil society by creating interactions with internationally renowned speakers.

Advisory Services

With its unique expertise in the field of capacity building, UNITAR's services are frequently requested in the establishment and strengthening of national Diplomatic Academies or Ministries of Foreign Affairs. UNITAR is also uniquely equipped to assist Member States and other actors in designing their competency framework.
